A TRENDSETTER IN THE WORLD OF TECHNICAL EDUCATION

STAY AHEAD: The institute's unique academic environment is characterised by dedicated teaching and modern resources

Iswayothi College of Engineering and Technology (VJCET) is owned and run by the Diocesan Technical Educational Trust under the patronage of HE Mar George Madathikandathil, Bishop of Kothamangalam. Established in the year 2001 as a self-financing engineering college, it is approved by AICTE and affiliated to APJ Abdul Kalam Technological University (KTU).

The character and quality of technical education imparted through this institution is best assessed by its growth, spanning over a decade, from a student community of 120 members to one with 2,600 students spread across 6 undergraduate courses, 3 postgraduate courses, 3 postgraduate streams and a stream for management studies.

(NBA).

The institution has served as a launchpad for attractive career opportunities in academia and the industry. Four of their B.Tech programmes including Civil Engineering, Computer Science and Engineering, Electronics and Communication Engineering, and Mechanical Engineering are accredited by the National Board of Accreditation

The Comeback to Career or C2C meeting is being organised to help women after a career break to choose a career or set up a business. The event is being conducted on June 27 at Bhubaneswar, Trivandrum. The meet is a free event which is being held especially to benefit qualified women who find it difficult to re-enter their careers after a break due to maternity or other personal needs. Dr M Beena IAS, MD of KSIDC will be addressing the gathering along with several other

Mar Ivanious College, Trivandrum. The event is being organised by Prayaana Labs in association with the Kerala Startup Mission and KSIDC.

The event will be marked by special career orientation sessions by career mentors. 100 selected women will be eligible to get scholarships for Prayaana Fellowships which will help in kick-start their career.
