loved to coach. In his playing days, he used to mentor young batsmen in his team.

So, when he hangs up his boots, coaching was his first option for a new career. The last six years have given him several reasons to justify his decision.

This past season has made him particularly happy – as the batting coach of Kerala's senior team which made history by qualifying for the Ranji Trophy semifinals. "It felt great being part of this remarkable campaign by the Kerala team," he told The Hindu on Tuesday. "This was something Kerala could not have dreamt of in my playing days."

Sebastian, a left-handed opener, had played in 11 matches from 2004 to 2008.

Sebastian Antony.
■ SPECIAL ARRANGEMENT

"Those days, players weren't given that many chances; so just about everyone in the side would be under great pressure to maintain his place," he recalled. "Things changed when Sujith Somasunder took over as the Kera-la's Ranji team around was significant, especially in batting," he said. "And I enjoyed working with him; I was his teammate too when he played for Kerala in the Ranji Trophy as a professional."

Sebastian said he had learnt also from working under Dav Whatmore, who has been in charge of Kerala for the last two seasons. "He has shown how one could get the best out of a player," he said. "He is very tactical and I also admire the way he handles them; he knows how to get his point across without being critical."

Looking back at the season, Sebastian said he had worked a lot with P. Rahul, the opener who was the find of the season for Kerala, ble, solid batsman at the top of the batting line-up, which is filled with strokemakers," he said. "It was lovely to see Vishnu proving a lot of people wrong; he had been branded as a batsman only fit for the shorter formats."

He is also happy to see the way Sijomon Joseph has evolved as a bowling all-rounder this season. "I have been following Sijomon for a long time," he said. "He was part of the Kerala Under-14, 16 and 19 teams that I coached."

Sebastian is also hopeful a few other youngsters who have trained under him in age-group cricket, like Salman Nizar, Fanoos Fazil and N.P. Basil. "They are all very promising," he said.

THE signing of Rahul KP from Indian Arrows could be an indication that Kerala Blasters are planning for the future and not on short term gains.

The 19-year-old came into lime-light after being part of the Indian team which played in the 2017 FIFA Under-17 World Cup held in India.

He joins his former teammates Dheeraj Singh, Non-gdamba Naorem, Jeakson Singh and Mohammad Rakip who were part of the World Cup team.

Rahul KP who hails from Thrissur has been a main-stay for the All India Football Federation's development team which has been playing in the I-League for the last two seasons.

The winger has explosive pace and packs a punch with his shots. He can even slot in at the full back positions which makes him a versatile player.

He also puts in a defensive shift for his team and has been one of the impressive performers for Arrows this season.

ON Wednesday, the Chennai City story will have its denouement when I-League officials finally hand over the trophy to them. But that was perhaps the biggest of the many factors. Manzi and his fellow Spaniards created some amazing numbers over the season.

Manzi netted 21 of the 48 goals that his club scored, finishing joint-top scorer of the I-League. Winger Nestor scored eight and created nine more. Sandro scored nine and assisted seven. Even Eslava, a cen-

The man behind bringing this quartet — as well as goalkeeper Nauzet Garcia Santana who was replaced towards the end of the season due to injury — is no longer with club. Jordi Vila Gris, a former Barcelona and Manchester City scout, had started the season as Akbar Nawas' assistant, before netting a role as an assistant coach at MLS side New York City FC. The Spaniards that he eventually brought to Chennai City were all players who had been on his list for a long time.

"Eslava started his career in Tede's academy," says Jordi. "I noticed him when he played for the B side of Las Palmas. It was 2009 and he was playing in the 2B division (third tier of Span-
